REQUIREMENTS

Two 4-page close-reading papers due: Friday, April 20 and Monday, May 14
One final 5-page close-reading paper, due Friday, June 8
Two pass/fail quizzes, in lecture class: Friday, May 4 and Friday, June 8

Approximate distribution of grades for written work papers = 85% (paper 1 = 20%; 2 = 30%; 3 = 35%)
quizzes = 15% or course failure (pass 2 = A; pass 1 = F; pass 0 = F for the course)

Class participation: your final calculated grade is reviewed and adjusted to reflect your overall performance, including class participation. Your grade may be raised, remain the same, or lowered. Typically adjustments are of 1/3 of a grade, but in rare cases may be much larger.

In addition:

- Lively participation in your section is expected. Active participation in lecture is encouraged, but not required.
- Papers are due in lecture on their due date. No extensions granted after a due date.
- You are strongly encouraged to meet individually with your teachers during the quarter to work on your writing.
- You must use your email account. If you use an account other than the one provided by the university, you will need to update your address in MyUCLA.
- Ecampus contains important course information, including our lecture slides, sample quizzes, and specific advice about writing the close-reading papers for this course.
- My email is grossman@humnet.ucla.edu. Feel free to contact me; I appreciate hearing your suggestions and thoughts about the course.

Finally, a note about academic integrity. Academic integrity is fundamental to University life and to your own education. Always be sure to note any outside sources you use, and don't hesitate to ask about the correct ways of citing them. Plagiarizing, which means taking words or ideas from a published or unpublished source without proper acknowledgment, is wrong and violates your UCLA Student Conduct Code.
