

UCLA ENGLISH MINOR

This minor is designed for those students who wish to enhance their major program with the benefits of intensive study of English language and literatures, including a better understanding and appreciation of literatures in English and improvement in critical thinking, reading, and writing skills.

To enter the minor, students must be in good academic standing (2.0 grade-point average), have completed English 10A, and (if not already completed), be enrolled in English 10B. For further information, please contact the departmental Undergraduate Counseling Offices in Humanities 158 and 160 (310) 825-1389.

Preparation for the Minor: 3 courses (to be taken in sequence)

English 10A _____ English 10B _____ English 10C _____

- A grade of C or better is required for the 10 series.
- All courses used to fulfill requirements for the English minor must be 4 or 5 units and taken for a letter grade.
- Seminars may not be applied toward the Historical requirements. Limit one seminar per student.
- When choosing classes to fulfill requirements for the minor, students are expected to select those courses which best reflect their own interests and simultaneously contribute towards a coherent program in literary studies.

The Minor: 5 Courses

Literatures in English before 1700 _____
(one course)

Literatures in English before 1850 _____
(one course)

English Electives 100 – 191E _____
(three courses)

No more than 2 Upper Division courses for the minor may be taken during Summer Session or outside of UCLA. Successful completion of the minor is indicated on the transcript and diploma.