Subject: [FUNDING] 2022-23 Department Dissertation Research Fellowship - Call for Applications
Date: Tuesday, November 30, 2021 7:57:00 PM

Dear Graduate Students and Ph.D. candidates,

The deadline to apply to activate your English Department Dissertation Research Fellowships for 2022-23 is February 23, 2022. Applicants must have their doctoral committees formally approved by the February 23 deadline and must also have either taken their Part II Exams by that date or officially scheduled them for no later than the end of the spring quarter 2021.

To apply, please complete and submit the online application form available at:
<https://english.ucla.edu/2022-23-ucla-english-dissertation-fellowship-application/>.

The form will require that you upload the following materials, in order, as a single PDF document:

1. A plan for completion of the dissertation (maximum 4 pages, double-spaced) providing the following information:
 - a brief abstract that presents the thesis, theoretical framework, and significance of the study
 - the current status of the research and writing
 - a timeline for completion
2. An unofficial transcript (available at my.ucla.edu) that includes Fall 2021 grades.
3. Resume or curriculum vitae.

NOTE: In addition to the materials submitted through the online application system, a letter of support from your dissertation committee chair or co-chair commenting on the status of the dissertation project and proposed plan for completion should be submitted directly to Mike Lambert (mlambert@english.ucla.edu). Deadline for letters is February 23, 2022.

Awards will be announced by May 27, 2022.

Please feel free to contact me with any questions you may have.

Best,
Mike

PS: Online form is a little clunky-looking. It's a wordpress issue the department is working on.
